Telecast rating of 'Ramta Ramta' T.V. Serial from Doordarshan Kendra, Ahmedabad

3510. SHRIMATI ANANDIBEN JETHABHAI PATEL: Will the Minister of INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING be pleased to state:

(a) whether the programme 'Ramta-Ramta' being telecast from Doordarshan Kendra, Ahmedabad, for children is found popular in the area;

(b) if so, what is its rating;

(c) whether there is any proposal to include school programme for children in order to give school children impetus to take part in such programmes instead of gathering children of friends and relatives by producers and giving prizes to those selected children;

(d) the number of times school children were included in this programme and prizes given during the last one year; and

(e) the details of direction issued or being issued to the producer of this programme?

THE MINISTER OF INFORMATION AND BROADCASTING (SHRI C.M. IBRAHIM): (a) and (b) Though no survey has been conducted to find the Television Rating of the programme (TRP), the programme is well received and popular amongst the targetted audience.

(c) Children of different schools of the area are being involved in the production of 'Ramta Ramta' programme. Apart from involving children of different schools in general, meritorious children are selected on the basis of individual merits and they are being invited to participate in the programme from time to time.

(d) and (e) During 1995-96, children of 10 schools were included in the programme. All the children were awarded prizes. These programmes are duly approved by the Competent Authority at Doordarshan Kendra, Ahmedabad.
